

MATT KEEL – TEACHING PROFESSIONAL

Matt Keel began his career with JW Marriott Wildfire Golf Club in December 2005. Currently, he is an Assistant Golf Professional and a Certified Instructor for Wildfire Golf Academy. At Wildfire, Matt's teaching experience includes individual lessons, junior program, and short & full swing group clinics. Matt's students have been of all age ranges and varying skill levels. This past year, Matt's focus has been the development of a successful Summer Junior Program along with a monthly Junior Development Program for kids wanting to improve their playing abilities and enjoy the game. Matt has also donated his time and teaching knowledge to junior programs such as the First Tee of Phoenix. Matt's teaching philosophy is for his students to enjoy the game through lessons, practice, and most importantly, positive feedback.
